

CR

K. Kay

455-10-13

J. L. Monkman

August 29th, 1955

Arsenic in Yellowknife Water, & Milk

As suggested, water sample number 6 was repeated. Five separate aliquots were run and the average value found was 0.132 micrograms per 1 ml.

No arsenic was found in the milk, but the milk is being repeated, since it is very difficult to digest, and we have more time to give to individual samples now.

J. L. Monkman.

JLM/ds